Description:

Paris 14th - In a beautiful Art Deco building dating from 1931, overlooking a private tree-lined cul-de-sac 200 metres from the Observatoire gardens: 117 m2 apartment, completely renovated and decorated by an interior designer.

Living space comprising an entrance hall with dressing room and plenty of bespoke storage space, a large double living room (42 m2) bathed in light (south-facing) overlooking a charming private tree-lined cul-de-sac lined with mansions, a semi-open kitchen fully fitted and equipped with high-quality materials, and a guest WC. On the night side, there is a bedroom (19m2) in a quiet location overlooking the garden with plenty of custom storage space, a bathroom with double sinks and a toilet, and a master suite (18m2) with a walk-in shower.

This property has undeniable charm, tasteful decor, views of the gardens (completely peaceful), and direct light, making it a rare and exceptional find. Suitable for professionals.
