Description:

Fully renovated 2 bedroom apartment with quality finishes is an excellent option for those looking for a modern home with good natural lighting.

Located between Quarteira and Vilamoura, it offers easy access to all the amenities and attractions of these two tourist locations in the Algarve.

The complete and modern renovation of the apartment ensures that the spaces are updated and well-designed.

The living room and common dining room provide a large and comfortable environment to enjoy moments of conviviality and leisure with family and friends.

One of the main features of this property is the panoramic terrace, which offers a lovely view over the city of Quarteira. Here it can be an ideal area to relax outdoors or hold small social events.

Open space kitchen, fully equipped with all the necessary appliances, allows you to cook easily and practically, while interacting with the common areas of the apartment.

Two large bedrooms, both equipped with built-in wardrobes for greater convenience in the organization of personal belongings.

In addition, one of the bedrooms has a large and generous enclosed balcony, which can be used as a rest area or even adapted to create another room, providing flexibility in the configuration of the space.

The property also has two full bathrooms, ensuring comfort and privacy for residents and their guests.

Equipped with air conditioning, double glazing and electric shutters.

It also benefits from parking in a closed garage

The location is considered a strong point of the apartment, as it is within walking distance of the beautiful beaches of Quarteira, allowing easy access to enjoy the sea and sun characteristic of the region.

The famous Vilamoura Marina is also within walking distance, offering a number of entertainment options, restaurants, shops and nautical activities.
