The plot is flat and is located at the beginning of the village with a wonderful panoramic view of the surrounding nature. The road to it is a dirt road accessible all year round. Without electricity and water, but it can be easily started.

The Luda Kamchia River flows nearby, and the area is known for its green hills, clean air and beautiful natural landmarks. The village of Beronovo is located at the foot of the Eastern Stara Planina and is located in a picturesque hilly area with interesting rock formations.

It is a quiet and well-maintained Bulgarian village with a pleasant atmosphere. The population is small and close-knit. The village has a shop, a bus line and several guest houses, which makes it an attractive place for recreation and rural tourism.

Next door we offer for sale another property with an area of 1030 sq m, and the two properties can be combined
