ZADAR, BIBINJE - Attractive building plot of 809 m² in a top location!

The land is of regular shape and is located in the immediate vicinity of the main road on the road to Sukošan, which provides excellent traffic connections and easy access. All necessary infrastructure is located right next to the plot, since family houses with all connections have been built in the immediate vicinity.

The quiet and attractive location makes this land ideal for building a family house, holiday villa or investment property.

Along with the purchase of the land, it is possible to take over the finished project for a family house, which further facilitates and accelerates the start of construction for the future owner.

The owners also offer additional building land in Bibinje, at another location, with an area of 1,881 m², which they are also happy to show to interested buyers.
