ISTRIA, RAKALJ - Agricultural land 600 meters from the sea

Rakalj is a small town on the western coast of the Raška Bay on the southeastern coast of Istria, 12 km from Marčana and 30 kilometers from the city of Pula. It was first mentioned in 1190, it was once known for its traditional Istrian pottery, whose tradition is being revived for tourist purposes, and for its sailors and fishermen. It is extremely attractive to hikers because of its cultural and historical sights and nature. Agricultural land is for sale just 600 meters from the sea and the beach. The land is 800 m2 and rectangular in shape. The land has an access road and is located in a quiet and secluded location from the city and countryside. The first holiday homes are only 700m away. Other land is also being sold with this one, so more land can be purchased together. It is ideal for sea lovers and people who like to spend their free time in nature. The first beach is a 20-minute easy walk away. 1/1 ownership, no encumbrances!
