Description:
Basement: 1

This is great and spacious home in excellent condition , located on one of the main thoroughfares of Olvera and right at the point where the historic area joins the newer part of Olvera , easy access on foot or by car with every amenity just minutes away.

Comprising of four levels not only does this house have two terraces it also has two entrances.

Ground floor entering you have a lounge area with traditional bay window and tiled zocolos which continue through the ground floor .An arch leads through to a dining area , then a hallway through to a ground floor bedroom , onwards to a kitchen , and the only bathroom , there is a short hallway diving kitchen and bathroom with access to a small semi covered patio mainly used for drying washing .

The basement is accessed by an external staircase , and is an amazingly spacious and dry space , it's here that the second entrance is located , a door that leads to a short gated alley that opens onto another street, on which you have a large supermarket and fruit and veg shop , so easy to bring the goods home .

The second floor comprises of an open landing area off which are two very large bedrooms , one has balcony overlooking the street and the other to the rear has a door on to a good sized terrace.

Up on the top floor there is a further large bedroom and attic storage space , the bedroom gives access to the second larger terrace to the front of the house , it offers views up the street towards the castle , and down towards Plaza Concordia , the ideal spot to enjoy carnival parades and Semana Santa processions , it is a privileged spot in a part of Olvera that is sought after by the locals due to its convenient location .
