Description:

- Located in a beautifully preserved classic Berlin Altbau, this elegant third-floor apartment offers a harmonious blend of timeless architectural charm and comfortable living. High ceilings, original wooden floors, and ornate plasterwork create a sense of light and space, while large windows throughout the home bathe each room in natural daylight.

The apartment features a generous living room, a tranquil bedroom, a stylishly updated kitchen, and a bright, well-proportioned bathroom. Each space has been thoughtfully arranged to maintain the building's historic character while providing modern comfort. From the decorative ceiling details to the warm wood tones underfoot, the apartment radiates a cozy and welcoming atmosphere.

Situated in the sought-after district of Wilmersdorf, the property enjoys a prime location with excellent access to public transport. It's only about a 5-minute walk to the U7 at Blissestrasse and the U9 at Berliner

Strasse — super convenient for getting around the city!

. The area is dotted with local cafes, bakeries, shops, and restaurants, as well as weekly markets offering fresh regional produce.

Green spaces such as Volkspark Wilmersdorf and Preussenpark are nearby, offering the perfect escape for leisurely walks, picnics, or morning jogs. Whether you're looking for culture, cuisine, or quiet relaxation, this well-connected and vibrant neighborhood offers it all.

A truly delightful residence for anyone seeking classic Berlin elegance in a peaceful yet central location.
