Description:

Set in peaceful countryside just minutes from Carvoeiro's renowned beaches and secluded coves, this traditional three-bedroom quinta offers an increasingly rare combination of space, privacy and authentic Algarve character. Occupying an impressive plot of approximately 27,000 m², the property enjoys far-reaching countryside views towards the coast, with the Atlantic Ocean visible in the distance. The single-storey farmhouse-style villa provides approximately 152 m² of living space and retains many traditional features, like the open fireplace and a covered terrace overlooking the surrounding land. The accommodation comprises three bedrooms, including one en-suite, two bathrooms, comfortable living areas and direct access to the private swimming pool nestled among mature trees. The extensive grounds are planted with established olive, carob, almond and fruit trees, creating the atmosphere of a genuine Algarve country estate. Ideal for houses or dog lovers multi-generational living or a tourism-related project, subject to the necessary approvals. Requiring renovation, this distinctive property presents an exceptional opportunity to create a private country retreat, permanent residence or peaceful holiday home close to the coast. Carvoeiro Tennis Club, Ferragudo, several prestigious golf courses and some of the Algarve's most beautiful beaches are all within easy reach. Properties offering this level of privacy, mature land, sea views and proximity to Carvoeiro rarely come to market.
