A Refined Opportunity in the Mallorcan Countryside — Moscari

Nestled within an authentic Mallorcan village, this freehold ground-floor apartment offers a rare opportunity to create a distinguished home defined by generous proportions, natural light, and uninterrupted views across the island's unspoiled northern landscape — with scope to bring your own vision and personal style to the space.

A gracious hallway, spanning the full length of the residence, sets the tone for the flow and sense of space found throughout. To the right, double doors reveal an impressive 25sqm lounge and dining room, where a dramatic floor-to-ceiling window draws the eye toward the landscape beyond and fills the room with natural light. The fully fitted kitchen, complete with built-in appliances, connects seamlessly to a utility space where full-width, floor-to-ceiling patio doors dissolve the boundary between indoors and out — opening onto the property's crowning feature: an expansive 75sqm terrace, commanding sweeping views across the north of the island.

The master suite offers a private sanctuary, with a generously sized window framing the terrace and island panorama beyond, complemented by a walk-in wardrobe and a well-appointed ensuite bathroom. Two further bedrooms, each opening onto a private front balcony, offer versatility for family, guests, or a dedicated home office or studio. A separate shower room complete this thoughtfully arranged home.

Offered fully furnished, the property is ready for immediate enjoyment, while presenting the discerning buyer with the exciting opportunity to modernize and personalize the space — a canvas awaiting its next chapter.

A Setting of Rare Character

Moscari itself embodies the understated charm of traditional Mallorcan village life — home to a hotel restaurant, two further restaurant-bars, and a village shop, all within easy reach on foot. Just moments away, the neighbouring villages of Campanet and Selva provide additional shops and supermarkets for everyday convenience.

For a wider array of amenities, Inca — the island's second city — lies a mere five minutes drive away, offering an excellent selection of restaurants, boutiques, supermarkets, and major retail outlets, together with a direct rail connection to Palma (alternatively reached by a scenic 30-minute drive).

Within 25 minutes, the celebrated resorts of Mallorca's north coast — Alcudia, Port de Pollenca, and the exclusive Cala Sant Vicenc, among others — are readily accessible, positioning this property as an idyllic retreat that pairs authentic island living with effortless access to the very best of northern Mallorca.

ABOUT THE AREA

Moscari is a quiet, idyllic hamlet located in the inland municipality of Selva, nestled along the northern foothills of the Serra de Tramuntana mountain range on the Spanish island of Mallorca. Known for its slow pace of life, traditional stone-built houses, and narrow winding streets, the village offers a glimpse into authentic rural Mallorcan culture away from the major tourist resorts. Surrounding countryside consists of olive groves, almond trees, and rolling farmland, making it a peaceful retreat for hikers, cyclists, and travelers seeking tranquility.

Despite its secluded atmosphere, Moscari is well-placed for exploring the broader island. It sits just a short drive from larger, historic towns like Inca—renowned for its leather goods and weekly open-air market—as well as the neighboring mountain villages of Campanet and Selva. The nearby Tramuntana mountains offer numerous scenic hiking trails, while the golden beaches of Alcudia and Pollenca on the northern coast can be reached in roughly 25 to 30 minutes by car.

Visitors to Moscari can wander through its charming central plaza, admire the small parish church of Santa Anna, or stay in converted agritourism farmhouses (agroturismos) that dot the surrounding countryside. Dining options in and around the village focus heavily on traditional Balearic cuisine, using locally sourced ingredients like olive oil, seasonal vegetables, and Mallorcan wines.

The nearest airport serving Moscari is Palma de Mallorca Airport (PMI), also known as Son Sant Joan Airport, located approximately 41 kilometers (25 miles) to the southwest. The drive from the airport to Moscari typically takes around 35 to 45 minutes via the Ma-13 highway, making the village easily accessible for international travelers.
