Leírás:

These linked design villas are being built next to the Golf resort Terrazas de la Torre and within walking distance of the typical Spanish town of Roldán with just over 6,000 inhabitants. These villas have an L-shape which has the advantages that a lot of privacy is created and all rooms have direct access to the garden in which the swimming pool is located. At the side of the house are the stairs to the roof terrace from where you have a beautiful view of the surroundings and the mountains. Major advantages of this district are that the golf resort is located directly next to the district, but you do not pay for the expensive infrastructure; thanks to the perfect connection to the motorway you are within 15 minutes at the beautiful beach of Santiago de la Ribera and you have all services within walking distance.
