Forestry Farming in the area of Rio San Juan

Forestry farming with a production of hardwood and biomass which is in full production on the north coast of the Dominican Republic.

For those who do not not what Forestry Farming means: Forestry farming, also known as agroforestry, is a sustainable land use system where trees or shrubs are grown around or among crops or pastureland. It combines agricultural and forestry technologies to create more diverse, productive, profitable, healthy, and sustainable land-use systems.

We are offering an Acacia tree farm that has 333.45 meters of road access and a size of 74.62 acres which equals 480,21 tareas or 301.983,73 square meters.

The farm has access from Rio San Juan (about 13,7 km), and the access from La Cantera (about 11,8 km).
