Estrela is a neighborhood located in the western area of Lisbon, Portugal. It is known for its Basílica da Estrela church, which is one of the city's most important baroque churches, and for its beautiful public garden. The area is also famous for its typical Lisbon architecture, with colorful terraced houses and mosaic sidewalks. Moreover, Estrela is a quiet residential area and is popular among families and young professionals. There is a good selection of restaurants, cafes and shops in the area, as well as easy access to the city center by public transportation.
