Faz Fato is a small locality situated in the Tavira region, in the Algarve, southern Portugal. It's known for its natural beauty, with lush landscapes and stunning sea views.

The area is rich in history and culture, with several Roman and medieval ruins nearby, such as Tavira Castle and the Roman Bridge. Additionally, the region is famous for its paradisiacal beaches, such as Praia do Barril, which can be reached via an old tourist train.

Faz Fato is a peaceful and tranquil locality, perfect for those seeking a refuge away from the hustle and bustle of the city. There are a few restaurants and cafes in the area, offering the opportunity to experience delicious Portuguese cuisine, as well as local shops selling regional products such as fruits, vegetables, and olive oil.

The proximity to Tavira also offers the convenience of having all necessary amenities, such as supermarkets, pharmacies, and hospitals, within a short drive. Faz Fato is a great choice for those who wish to live in a peaceful and natural environment, but still be close to everything the Tavira region has to offer.
