The Grand Longere: Space, Light, and Endless Possibilities

The centerpiece of the estate is a magnificent longere farmhouse, boasting a captivating open-plan design. As you step inside, you are greeted by a soaring volume of space, bathed in natural light. The ground floor offers a sense of boundless possibility. Currently configured as a large living area, the space seamlessly incorporates a well-equipped kitchen at one end. A striking double-width oak staircase leads upwards, drawing the eye upwards to the impressive mezzanine level.

Unwind and Reconnect in Comfort:

A charming 'white room' with a conveniently located downstairs WC provides a quiet retreat. Sliding doors lead out onto a sun-drenched terrace, perfect for enjoying al fresco meals or simply soaking up the serene atmosphere. Step off the terrace and discover a delightful surprise - a small well, a testament to the property's history and self-sufficiency. A practical lean-to storage area offers additional space for outdoor furniture and gardening equipment.

Outdoor Oasis Awaits:

Beyond the terrace lies a true oasis of relaxation. For moments of pure indulgence, step into the inviting hot tub, strategically positioned to offer breathtaking panoramic views of the unspoiled countryside. Witness the magic of both sunrise and sunset, painting the landscape in a kaleidoscope of colors.

Upstairs Retreat and Flexible Options:

Ascend the magnificent oak staircase to the upper level. The current owners utilize the spacious mezzanine as a dedicated office space. However, its versatility allows for effortless conversion into a luxurious additional bedroom, further enhancing the property's sleeping capacity. Continuing past the family bathroom, you arrive at the expansive master bedroom, a true haven of tranquility. The ensuite bathroom and picture windows overlooking the glistening pool complete this idyllic retreat.

Hidden Potential: Transforming a 'Chaufferie' into a Self-Contained Haven:

To the rear of the main house lies a significant 'chaufferie,' currently serving as the functional heart of the property. Housing the plant room for the pool and underfloor heating system, it offers an exciting opportunity for further development. An additional bathroom attached to this space allows for its transformation into a self-contained apartment, complete with its own private access to the pool and garden. Imagine creating a private studio for visiting artists, a cozy guest quarters for extended family, or a potential rental income opportunity.

A Gite Reborn: The Transformed Porcherie

Next door, a delightful surprise awaits. The thoughtfully renovated gite, once the farm's 'porcherie' (pigsty), has been given a new lease on life. This charming one-bedroom gite boasts a comfortable and well-equipped kitchen/diner, perfect for accommodating two guests. The option to add a sofa bed in the living area offers additional flexibility, making it ideal for small families seeking a cozy getaway.

A Vision for the Future: Four Luxury Gites Await at Number 5 Langanon

The allure of this exceptional property extends beyond the main longere. Included in the sale is the entirety of number 5 Langanon, comprising two traditional Breton houses, expansive land, barns, garages, a well, and a charming bread oven. The current owners, with a keen eye for potential, have secured planning permission to convert these premises into four luxurious gites. These plans, meticulously developed by Andrew Allen Architects in Dinan, north Brittany, offer a blueprint for transforming this traditional property into a thriving gite complex. One of the houses is currently habitable, boasting functioning power, electricity, and water supply. Imagine the possibilities!
