This home is truly picture-perfect! The terrace offers unparalleled views, making it an absolute gem. It's well-built and situated on a charming, quiet street, just a short distance from the Main Street.

Entering through a glazed San Juan, natural light floods the downstairs sitting room. There's also a window at the front of the house, with a dining area towards the back of the room. The spacious family room has an arch that leads to a small dining space and storage area, which connects to the kitchen. It would be ideal to extend the kitchen into this space, as the sitting room is large enough to accommodate a big dining table. A full bathroom is accessible from the small patio, which also leads up to a small internal terrace and a good sized storage room—perfect for laundry!

Upstairs, a large landing/dressing area leads to the master bedroom, which features built-in storage cupboards and a window looking out to the front of the property.

On the third floor, you'll find the second bedroom, with two picture windows offering a beautiful view to the street. From here, you go up again , where you can step onto the stunning roof terrace, which boasts breathtaking views. The sunsets from this spot would be spectacular, perfect for enjoying an evening G&T!

In short, this house offers tremendous potential at an excellent price.
