Leírás:

A beautiful farmhouse in immaculate order located in a small village on the edge of the river Charente. The beautifully maintained garden leads down towards the river itself and is accessed via the garden gate and across a small lane. The attractive riverside village is very quiet with no through traffic and so only locals using the small lanes. At the same time the village is under 4kms from the small town of Aunac and is also close to the larger market towns of Ruffec and Mansle.

The 'Longere' style stone house offers spacious accommodation with 3 reception rooms, 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The property has oil central heating, is mainly double glazed and the sanitation system is conforming. Oozing character throughout such as the old oak beams, exposed stone walls, original fireplaces with efficient wood burners, but with the above modern comforts.
