Real Estate Consultant Andreas Christodoulou, member of the Sianos Papageorgiou team and RE/MAX Domi office.

Exclusively available in the lush and picturesque area of Agia Paraskevi, Zagora, this charming ground-floor detached house of 65 sq.m. offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a peaceful home or a traditional holiday retreat in the heart of Pelion.

Built in 1956, the residence features 2 bedrooms, a living room, kitchen, and bathroom, providing a functional layout suitable for a small family or as a vacation getaway. The property comes with wooden window frames, tiled floors, air conditioning (A/C) for heating and cooling, and holds an Energy Class E rating.

Surrounded by a private garden, the home invites outdoor relaxation and gardening opportunities. Additionally, there is a 10 sq.m. storage room and a tiled roof that enhances the traditional architectural character of the house. The property also enjoys beautiful mountain views, making it an ideal spot for nature lovers.

Agia Paraskevi is a serene village near Zagora's central market and just a short drive from the stunning beaches of the Aegean Sea, such as Chorefto and Agioi Saranta. The area combines natural beauty with traditional charm, making it a sought-after destination for both permanent and seasonal residence.
