Tucked away in Gianyar – Kemenuh's peaceful and scenic area, an expansive 1260 sqm plot awaits those keen to carve out their slice of Bali paradise. With a freehold title and priced at IDR 205 million per are, this land stands as the essence of Bali real estate opportunities, offering a blank slate for constructing a lavish home or an elite getaway. Encircled by nature's tranquility, the site is blessed with a river's soothing murmurs nearby. Its view stretches over verdant rice paddies, painting the perfect Balinese scene. Such a setting offers a haven of quietude and seclusion, a gem in Bali's bustling property market.

A mere 20 minutes from Saba Beach, the land strikes a perfect harmony between private life and Bali's celebrated shores. Close to Tegenungan Waterfall, it invites a plunge into the island's natural wonders, highlighting its investment appeal among Bali's luxury listings. This plot is more than just land; it's a vision board for a custom-made paradise, be it a grand villa, a quaint resort, or an elite estate. Its Gianyar – Kemenuh locale ensures a mix of retreat-like privacy and easy access, appealing to those eyeing real estate ventures in Bali, especially amidst a spike in demand for distinctive, opulent stays. Its freehold status adds to its allure, presenting a solid investment in Bali's lively property scene. It shines as a prime pick in Bali land offerings, especially for overseas investors desiring a foothold in the island's upscale real estate domain.
