1-bedroom house on two levels with independent entrance and terrace with the sea view.

From the front door which looks on to the street leads to the day room which consists of a large living room and lounge (one of these could be converted to a second bedroom).

The living room leads to a terrace of about 12 square meters that overlooks the sea and the roofs of the old houses of the historic center. The living room leads to a large bright kitchen. On the same floor there is also a small bathroom with shower, sink and toilet. A beautiful staircase leads to the first floor where you have a double bedroom and a bathroom. From the bedroom there is access to a large terrace overlooking the Gulf of Lamezia and from which you observe mesmerizing sunsets and the Stromboli volcano.

A balcony also overlooks the street where there are many small shops, walking point for tourists.

From this home also it is easy to reach the various features and beaches that form the coast of Pizzo.

The main square with its famous ice cream shops where you can taste the best ice cream in Italy is 200 meters away.

Pizzo is a town of about 9,300 inhabitants served with all kinds of shops and services. The historic heart of the town is on a headland above the sea; newer settlements spread along the seashore in either direction. There are beaches nearby and Pizzo is both a busy 'local' town and a holiday destination. Distance to Lamezia Terme airport about 20 minutes' drive. Distance to the centre of Pizzo about 5 minutes' drive.
