The true luxury is measured by the incredibly wide space of the rooms of this house, the breathtaking view over the reservoir of Óbidos, with an excellent sun exposure and the interior luminosity that provides a feeling of perfect harmony with the surrounding nature.

A unique opportunity located in one of the most beautiful settings of Portugal, the historic and charming village of Óbidos that is distant from the capital - Lisbon only 50 minutes. The house was thought to detail and designed in order to ensure maximum comfort and functionality.

The ground floor flows with the concept of open space from the kitchen to the living room and to the pool and spa area in its essence, making a total of 300 m² of living space. Making this the ideal space for both family and friends. On the ground floor next to the kitchen, we have 3 autonomous spaces designed for; barbecue, technical area and pantry that provides all the necessary functionality (46m²). And also a suite (22m²) and a service bathroom.

On the top floor we have 3 very spacious suites with closet, and a terrace of 100m² with sun exposure south / west where the jacuzzi is located.

Master Suite with 80 m² and terrace, Suite 2 with 79 m² and fireplace, and Suite 3 with 59m².

The whole outdoor area has very large terraces, with very nice living areas with a garden fireplace to enjoy the panoramic view that the house offers.

The villa is in the final stages of construction.

All interior finishes and equipment can still be chosen.
