Enric Granados Apartments are found within a magnificent building dating back to 1873 with the restored original facade. The historical importance of the building has been respected in the creation of these brand new luxury apartments without compromising of modern day standards of comfort and energy efficiency.

This 125 m2 property on offer within this new development boasts impeccable high-end finishes throughout with details such as underfloor heating, aluminium carpentry, a Bulthaup kitchen and Neff appliances.

It has a spacious contemporary open plan living area, 1 en-suite bedroom, 2 further bedrooms and a second bathroom for guests. This particular unit may be adapted to offer less bedrooms with a large surface area each if desired.

An opportunity to acquire an excellent brand new apartment in a historical building on Enric Granados, one of the most coveted prime locations in the centre of Barcelona.
