Emblematic palatial building with 2635m2 built on a plot of land with 1322m2, in the centre of Évora, Alentejo.

Excellent location between Largo da Porta de Moura and the Cathedral of Évora. It offers unobstructed views of the city and its surroundings, Imposing corner building flanked and with access to 3 streets. Imposing main entrance with patio that allows parking for 5 to 6 vehicles, flanked by a majestic garden with 2 fountains and water well.

Main building consisting of 2 floors plus the turret. Ground floor with 9 rooms and backyard and sub-shop with 4 rooms and bathroom and 1st floor with 16 rooms, 3 corridors, 5 bathrooms, large terrace and turret with chapel.

This building was fully remodelled in 1993 for the purpose of offices for a financial institution. The works carried out preserved the palatial design and reinforced the structure and conditions of habitability and comfort.

Noble materials such as worked stone, coats of arms, walls with worked paintings, ... Which manifest themselves in large halls and rooms with vaults with high ceilings.

Come and see this noble building in the historic centre of the city and Évora and enjoy a unique space with high character and majestic charm.
