Completely new, with fully equipped kitchen, with air conditioning in all rooms, and solar panel for water heating, it was inhabited for only 1 month and is sold partially furnished.

It has 2 bedrooms with wardrobes on the upper floor, and a living room with open kitchen on the ground floor, where there is also a bathroom with Italian shower, and a storage room under the stairs.

Built with great finishes, this house becomes modern on the inside while maintaining the traditional design on the outside.
