Are you looking to building your own dream in a beautiful setting, surrounded by Mediterranean nature and rocky mountains? Discover our legal building plot of over 33000 m2 near La Romana, Alicante. The property is located in the slope of the mountain, and while the terrain presents a challenge, the beautiful environment means not only that you'll be very unlikely to have any neighbours, you also set yourself to live in a beautiful piece of wild nature - only 30 min from the sea. Access is via a dirt road - an off-road car is recommended. The parcel has a water connection. There is no electricity, the future house could operate with a solar system.
