As you pass through the stunning arched stone gates into the private gardens, it's immediately clear that this is a truly special property. This spacious family home offers five generously sized bedrooms, complemented by a recently converted independent guest gite, providing an additional bedroom perfect for visitors or extended family.

The home benefits from comfortable gas central heating and a modern, recently updated kitchen. The sanitation system has also been completely upgraded, offering peace of mind and convenience. Set within nearly one hectare of attached land, the property is ideal for anyone dreaming of keeping a horse, growing their own food, or simply enjoying a more self-sufficient lifestyle. A well and a rainwater cistern provide a sustainable water source for your vegetable garden or animals.
