Rustic land with 8,280 m² with water hole located in Ribeira de Alte, Parish of Paderne

Situated in the quiet Ribeira de Alte area, in the parish of Paderne, this rustic plot of 8,280 m² offers a natural and serene environment in the heart of the Algarve.

The land is equipped with electricity, a 7,000-liter septic tank, a lost well, a discharge system for motorhomes, and also has its own borehole for water collection.

The area is wooded with several fruit trees and local species: a lemon tree, two orange trees, a clementine tree, olive trees and carob trees.

A stream runs through the lower part of the land, offering freshness and an additional natural charm.

There is also a petanque court for leisure time.

The location is privileged: about 10 km from the center of Paderne, 15 km from the beaches of Albufeira and Olhos de Água (about 15 minutes by car), and 35 km from Faro International Airport (approximately 35 minutes).

Road access is easy and the area is well served.

This property offers a calm lifestyle and integrated into nature.

This land is inserted in a National Agricultural Reserve, so it will be ideal for an agricultural project, horses or animals.
