Farmhouse with 12,823 m², 4 houses and spring – an authentic retreat with stunning views in Castelo do Vale de Armunha, Pedrógão Grande

Located in the peaceful village of Castelo do Vale de Armunha, in the parish of Pedrógão Grande, this charming 12,823 m² farm offers the perfect balance between tranquillity, nature and the charm of traditional stone buildings.

The property consists of four houses, with the main house spread over three floors:

Floor -1: storage and agricultural support area, with direct access to the field.

Ground floor: main dwelling, consisting of 4 bedrooms, living room, functional kitchen, bathroom and two sunrooms, ideal for enjoying natural light and views of the landscape.

Attic: with interior access and sufficient ceiling height for use, offering potential to expand the living area.

The second house, built of stone and known as Casa do Forno, retains the original charm of the village, and both this and the main house have new roofs.

On the land there are also two additional urban buildings with great potential for restoration, perfect for accommodation projects, workshops or creative studios.

The land, with excellent sun exposure (east, south and west), extends over traditional terraces where olive trees and vines grow, composing a rural setting of great beauty.

The farm has a well and a natural spring which, during the winter, flows serenely between the stone houses, creating an idyllic and relaxing atmosphere.

Located at the beginning of the village and on high ground, the main house and the entire property enjoy fantastic views over the surrounding valley. Access is via a local road, in a very quiet environment, where you can only hear the flow of the Ribeira de Mega stream, which runs at the bottom of the land (without direct confinement).

An authentic retreat, full of potential, ideal for those seeking a peaceful life, contact with nature and the possibility of tourist or residential development.
