Leírás:

Semi-buried house dating from around 1900 with a slated roof in good condition. On the ground floor, the entrance hall leads on the right to a dining room/ kitchen of 26 m² as well as a tiled corridor giving access to the first floor. On your left a bedroom/study with cupboard of approximately 11 m² with a lino floor as well as a second bedroom with parquet flooring of approximately 12 m². From the kitchen a corridor leads to an independent toilet and a shower room. On the first floor, a landing gives to two bedrooms with parquet flooring, one with a surface area of approximately 15 m² and a cupboard, the other with an approximate surface area of 12 m². There's equally a toilet and a small attic for storage. The basement is composed of a cellar in two compartments. One of 48 m² used as a laundry and boiler room, the other of 25 m² is currently used as a storeroom/ workshop. Adjoining, a garage with a fibre cement roof, accessible from the inside, of approximately 13 m² providing access for a small car. On the grounds, a stone hut and barbecue with various adult fruit trees. This house of about 102 m² living space is situated on a plot of land with a total surface area of 1301 m². Central oil fired heating, double glazing, mains sewerage.
