Leírás:

In the heart of the historic district of Nontron (capital of the Périgord Vert and famous for its knife festival and shops). Situated on a beautiful square bathed in light, this lovely house has generous proportions and an uninterrupted view. The property requires your motivation and imagination to make it a haven of happiness. Adjoining the house is a small courtyard providing an outdoor area accessible from the current kitchen. The garden is around twenty steps from the house, with a view of Nontron castle on one side and the old courthouse on the other. Come and discover the joys of country living, yet only 45 minutes from Angoulême and Périgueux.
