bustling port surround the property, creating a lively and dynamic urban environment.

With its luxury finishes, smart layout, exceptional location, and Golden Visa eligibility, this maisonette is perfectly suited for international buyers, investors seeking strong rental demand, or anyone looking to enjoy a high-quality residence in one of Athens' most energetic districts.

A unique opportunity to own a modern, luxurious home at the center of Piraeus' evolving urban landscape.

Golden Visa Maisonette for sale in Piraeus. Location Information:

Located in the southeast of Greece, Piraeus is home to Europe's biggest passenger port and as such is a huge draw for cruise ships from around the world bringing tourists eager to explore this centuries-old city.

With a population of more than 160,000, Piraeus has many attractions to fill an entire vacation including religious and historic landmarks and fantastic restaurants.

But yet another major draw is the fact that it's easy to visit Athens because it's located nearby. The Greek capital city of Athens is just 12 kilometers (7 miles) from Piraeus.

Piraeus today is the main port of Athens, the biggest port in Greece, one of the leading ports in the Mediterranean, an important center of the merchant marine, industry, and transportation.

Piraeus port is the chief exit point from the city by sea for destinations amongst the Aegean Islands and elsewhere in the East Mediterranean. Domestic destinations include all of the Aegean islands.

The port in Piraeus is also used by several European cruise companies to welcome visitors to Greece. The centers of Piraeus are its three parts: the central port, the Zea Marina, and Mikrolimano.
