Leírás:

Set in the heart of an enchanting historic village in the Val di Susa, in the Italian Alps close to the French border, this luxurious portion of an independent Liberty-style villa offers a rare blend of architectural charm, refined comfort and an authentic mountain lifestyle. An ideal retreat for international buyers seeking privacy, elegance and year-round outdoor living—just a short distance from ski slopes and key Alpine routes. Dating back to the early 1900s, the residence features a bright main apartment of over 250 sqm (approx. 2,690 sq ft), complemented by a welcoming guest dependency of approximately 65 sqm (700 sq ft). Both enjoy independent access, ensuring discretion and flexibility for hosting family and friends. The property is surrounded by a secluded private garden of about 450 sqm (4,845 sq ft), framed by tall hedges and majestic century-old pines, creating an intimate and tranquil atmosphere throughout the seasons. Within the villa, yet arranged as an independent residential unit, the property also includes a separate guest apartment featuring a large open-plan living area with a second fireplace, a kitchenette, a bathroom, and a storage room or walk-in wardrobe. A perfect solution for visitors or staff, while maintaining autonomy and privacy. Completing the residence is a garage of approximately 70 sqm (750 sq ft)—a highly valuable feature in a central Alpine setting.
