This town house is located in the heart of downtown Saint-Hilaire-du-Harcouet, laid out as follows:

- On the ground floor: an entrance hall leading to a living room, a dining room, a fitted and equipped kitchen opening onto an aluminum conservatory furnished as a dining area, and a shower room with WC.
- On the first floor: a landing leading to three bedrooms ranging from 9 to 12 m2, one of which has a balcony overlooking the pond, and a shower room with WC.

There is an attic above and a full basement.

- Outside: you will find a lovely garden with a courtyard and a vegetable patch, as well as a 17.5 m2 garage with a recently installed motorized sectional door.

The house has undergone several renovations, including the addition of a veranda, a new roof, replacement of the windows and doors with double-glazed PVC, the installation of a mains gas boiler (less than two years old), repointing, electrical upgrades, and interior re-modelling.

The property is connected to mains drainage.

The department of Manche is in Lower Normandy and is bordered with Calvados, Orne, Mayenne and Ille-et-Vilaine. The English Channel in the west, north and north-west coastlines makes getting here to its many ports very easy from the UK. There is also an airport in Caen and many others are easily accessible in the surrounding regions such as Rennes airport.

History is all over the department through its museums and heritage, discovering the local traditions and culture as well as Chateaux, religious monuments, water mills, maritime sites and gardens is easy to do. The biggest 'must-do' is a visit to Mont Saint Michel.

Tourism plays a major role in the economy of the department which is fine because there is so much to see and do.
