Sea view – Mixed-use – Rare patrimonial asset

Just a short walk from the port and the beaches of Les Lecques, in one of the most sought-after areas of the Var coastline, this character property embodies a rare art of living, combining Mediterranean elegance with an exceptional patrimonial investment.

Developed over several levels, it harmoniously blends commercial spaces with high-end accommodation, offering generous volumes, abundant natural light and sea views from the upper floors. The layout has been designed to host a refined hospitality activity or an ambitious long-term patrimonial project, in a setting where rarity defines value.

Terraces, architectural character and a prime address all contribute to the singularity of this unique property, intended for a discerning clientele seeking an exceptional asset with strong long-term value.
