A Landmark Address in the Heart of Kingston

County Hall Kingston presents a rare opportunity to live within the sensitively restored former Surrey County Hall, alongside a striking collection of contemporary new-build homes. Offering studios, one, two and three bedroom apartments and duplexes, County Hall Kingston combines historic grandeur with modern comfort. Set in the heart of Kingston upon Thames, residents enjoy riverside living with access to cultural attractions, green spaces, shopping, dining, and excellent connections to London and beyond.

Beside the meticulously restored Grade II listed landmark, the new-build apartments have been designed with thoughtful layouts, high-quality finishes, and private outdoor spaces, many with views across landscaped gardens or the town. Architects have carefully blended heritage and modern design, drawing subtle inspiration from classical architecture while introducing contemporary lines and detailing. The result is a truly distinctive place to live, one that celebrates Kingston's rich history while embracing its vibrant future.
