Leírás:

Located in the heart of the charming town of Olhão, this traditional Algarvian house has a privileged location that allows you to do everything on foot: marina, typical restaurants, local shops and the lively historic centre are just a few minutes away.

Completely renovated with care, the property has preserved the authenticity of its original architecture while offering modern comforts. The generous volumes, the beautiful vaulted ceiling and the high ceilings bring character, elegance and brightness to the living spaces.

The exterior is one of the great assets of the house. Spread over different levels, three pleasant terraces invite you to take full advantage of the sunny climate of the Algarve, whether for alfresco dining, relaxing moments or convivial evenings.

Inside, the bright living room brings together the living room and kitchen in a harmonious open space, extended by a French window giving direct access to a terrace. The house also has two comfortable bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom, guaranteeing privacy and well-being.

A property full of charm, ideal for living or investing in the center of Olhão, in an authentic environment where everything is within walking distance. - REF: AM158
