Located in the industrial zone of the village of Rouffiac d'Aude, two empty buildings await your projects.

These two properties, situated within the village above the main Carcassonne/Limoux road, offer several possibilities for use (craft, commercial, rental, etc.).

The first building, measuring 231.44 m², is a former distillery with adjoining vats. Inside, the main room (with exposed vats) covers 168.91 m², and there is another room of 40.44 m², an office, a break room with a toilet and shower, and a roof terrace.

The second building is a 180 m² warehouse.

The entire property sits on a 1590 m² plot.

Property tax of 1579 Euro a year.

Well-maintained property, come and see it soon!

The department of Aude is in the Languedoc-Roussillon region located in the south of France. It is surrounded by the Pyrenees-Orientales, Ariege, Tarn and Herault departments.

French property buyers look in this region due to its numerous and varied landscapes as well as the rich cultural heritage, Aude has become an ever popular destination recently due to the gastronomy of the region, as well as its many festivals and dramatic scenery.

Carcassonne is the cultural heart of the Aude department, and all through the region you will find lovely properties either to live in or to use as holiday homes. Aude is an agricultural area dominated by wine-growing in the east and the climate is that of the Mediterranean so summers are hot and dry and winters are mild and humid.

It is the perfect location if you are looking for a quiet life and to be in harmony with your surroundings.
