Refined 19th-century residence with exposed beams and panoramic views, move-in ready and now for sale in Montepulciano, Siena. In the heart of one of Tuscany's most charming locations, a short distance from the historic center, we offer for sale a refined panoramic apartment set within the prestigious "Antico Borgo" complex. Born from the careful restoration of a 19th-century hospital, this brick building is protected by the Fine Arts Ministry and combines historic charm with the contemporary comfort of a renovation completed in 2016. The apartment is located on the first floor, with access through the complex's majestic main entrance. Completely renovated, it covers approximately 988,75 sq ft/ 90 sq m and consists of a welcoming entrance hall leading to the living room with a kitchenette—a space made unique by the architectural feature of three steps that define the area. The rooms are enhanced by exposed beam ceilings and large French windows, which give the property great brightness and a pleasant sense of openness over the Valdichiana valley. The sleeping area includes two bedrooms finished with parquet flooring and a bathroom with a shower. The property is completed by air conditioning, an alarm system, an armored door, and an underground parking space. The Borgo also offers exclusive services such as banks, medical centers, and professional offices, ensuring a practical and high-level context.
