In the heart of the historic centre, this charming residence spans three levels, blending authenticity with modern comfort.

- Ground floor: A large entrance hall opens onto a bright living room, enhanced by a Provencal-style ceiling, exposed stone walls, and travertine flooring, leading to a kitchen and a utility room/laundry room. Convenient access to the cellar is directly from the kitchen. This level also offers the possibility of commercial use, ideal for a craftsman, an office, or a shop.

- First floor: A staircase with authentic terracotta tiles leads to two bedrooms with solid wood flooring, offering a warm and elegant sleeping space.

- Top floor: The top floor houses two further bedrooms and a bathroom, perfect for accommodating family or guests in a comfortable and bright setting.

This house combines the charm of historic heritage with convenient city-centre living.

The department of the Bouches-du-Rhone is in the region of Provence Alpes / Cotes d'Azur in the South East of France and is an interesting and varied region for visitors to Provence, from the bustling centre of Marseille to the peaceful hillside villages, there is an abundance of beautiful coastal scenery and fascinating towns such as Arles and Aix-en-Provence to explore.

The Bouches-du-Rhone is situated in the south-west corner of the Provence Alpes / Cotes d'Azur region, on the Mediterranean coast and with the Languedoc-Roussillon region to the west. Marseille is the principal / capital city of the department.

Due to its diversity, the towns and roman monuments, the impressive scenic highlights, and its typically 'Provençal' character a visit to Bouches-du-Rhone has something of interest for both the first time visitors as well as seasoned property hunters looking for their dream home.
