Don't miss out, we present an exceptional property comprising two traditional buildings situated on over 3.5 hectares of land.

The first building: a stone-built structure with a flat tile roof, featuring two rooms, one with a fireplace.

This building will be eligible for a change of use designation when the Local Urban Development Plan (PLUi) is implemented in 2026, allowing for the creation of a main residence with a permitted extension of 50 m².

The second building: a traditional stone and half-timbered barn with a metal roof, offering significant development potential.

Total floor area of both buildings: 94 m²

Land: pastureland of over 3.5 hectares

A rare property combining architectural authenticity and development potential in a protected natural setting. Price: €60,500 *

The department of Orne, in Lower Normandy is bordered by the other two departments in the region, Manche and Calvados. It is located in the south of the region bordering with Mayenne, Sarthe, Eure et Loir and Eure. It is the only Normandy department without a coastline.

Orne's history was built through war, destruction and chaos but also through prosperity so don't worry it is a calm and peaceful place to live and visit now! It has rolling countryside, open meadows and boasts some of the best weekly markets in France.

Nowadays you can still see vestiges from all the troubled periods, as well as modern architecture that followed WWII. Nice property in the area is easy to find and reasonably priced.
