Leírás:

Located in Villefranche-sur-Mer, on the south-east facing slope of the Plateau de la Justice, midway between Villefranche-sur-Mer and Eze, this property enjoys a peaceful and preserved natural environment

Set within lush greenery with very limited surrounding development, it offers a true countryside feel just moments from the sea.

The property extends over a vast plot of approximately 10.1 hectares (i.e. 101,233 m²) and includes an old two-level house, as well as several former agricultural outbuildings now in ruins.

A full renovation project for the existing house has been approved, with planning permission granted allowing for the creation of a total floor area of 122 m².

The granted planning permission also includes the creation of a secured gated entrance along with a naturally treated access road maintained in its existing layout, and external landscaping designed to respect the surrounding environment,

A rare opportunity offering significant renovation potential in an exceptional natural setting, just minutes from Monaco and the coastline.
