Leírás:

This large family home sits just off the town square in Fuente de Piedra with easy walking distance to local school, Church and plenty of shops, bars that the town has to offer along with the famous Flamingo Lagoon which is also just a walk away. The property has a traditional but typical Andalusian entrance hall which opens in to a spacious lounge diner and two front rooms one which is used as formal dining room and the other an office for those that need to work from home, alternatively either of these rooms could be a ground floor bedroom if required. The lounge opens to a very bright fitted kitchen with central island ideal for enjoying with family & friends and a full ground floor bathroom. The kitchen spills out on to a private rear patio ideal for alfresco dining and a wonderful private swimming pool for those hot summers. On the first floor this property offers 3 good size double bedrooms all facing to the front of the property and one with ensuite bathroom. This floor also has a full family bathroom and fourth bedroom which opens to the rear of the property on to a private terrace which enjoys views across the rear patio and private pool area. The house is being offered part furnished and will make a great family home or getaway.
