Leírás:

Located in a particularly elegant part of the city centre, amongst the most sought-after addresses separating the artistic Brera district from the luxurious Fashion district, this estate offers the experience of living in a true private suite within a prestigious period building. With a floor area of approximately 85 sqm, this apartment has been designed with spacious, open-plan rooms, all conceived to maximise comfort and natural light, transforming a two-room apartment into a superior-class residence. The views extend both onto the main street and towards the more secluded internal street, ensuring both an urban atmosphere and a pleasant sense of privacy. The property is completed by a cellar, very useful as additional storage space, and the presence of a lift in the building, which facilitates access. The building, comprising high-end units, contributes to the discreet and elegant character of the address, whilst the mezzanine-level location ensures good privacy whilst maintaining a direct connection with the surrounding urban fabric. This layout makes this apartment particularly suitable for professionals, international travellers or couples seeking a convenient and prestigious base in Milan. Ref. 15701
