Designed with clean modular lines, this new property is located on the desirable Salicos estate, a residential development of quality homes on large plots between Carvoeiro and Lagoa, and it is already available for viewings. Local beaches, the towns of Carvoeiro and Lagoa and nearby golf courses are all be reached within a 5 to 10 minutes drive whilst Faro airport is just 45 minutes away.

This is a turn-key project, to be handed over to the buyer fully fitted with heated 14-metre swimming pool and partially landscaped garden. The villa enjoys a privileged setting within the estate on an elevated 2260m² plot.

Entering through the front door a hallway opens onto a large living and dining with open plan kitchen, full equipped with high-quality appliances. The lounge opens onto a covered terrace overlooking the pool and garden. Two of the en-suite bedrooms are located on the ground floor with the master suite and a further en-suite bedroom on the first floor. All bathrooms are equipped with an additional private outdoor shower to be enjoyed during the hot summer months.

The villa is built to a high specification with under-floor heating, solar panels, heat pump and thermal break windows and patio doors. This property is equally well-suited to be a family home or a holiday home with excellent investment potential from rental income.
