Leírás:

The space is exceptionally bright, providing abundant natural light and a pleasant working atmosphere throughout the day. It consists of three spacious rooms, two bathrooms (toilets), and a kitchen. In addition, the property features a large terrace with an open sea view, ideal for breaks or informal meetings. The property includes one parking space in the courtyard, with the possibility of securing additional parking spaces. The space was completely renovated in 2025, finished to modern standards, move-in ready with no additional investment required, and easily adaptable to various business needs. The location in Zamet offers excellent transport connections to the city center of Rijeka and quick access to major roads, while the proximity of all essential amenities further enhances the attractiveness of this property. This flexible space is ideal for office use, quiet business activities, or mixed-purpose use. For more information, please feel free to contact us....
