Cyprus, Polis is considered to be one of the most beautiful parts of the island and it's not hard to see why. Blessed with the best that nature has to offer, Polis boasts spectacular surroundings including the quaint fishing village of Latchi, Aphrodite's Baths and the unspoiled Akamas National Park. The crystal clear waters of the Blue Lagoon are also nearby.

The property features a traditional aesthetic with attractive stone walls and wooden-beamed ceilings, while incorporating all of the expected modern comforts for a sumptuous living experience. The house is set on a vast private plot with extensive grounds surrounded by beautiful greenery and striking views.

The ground floor boasts a spacious living room, with a fireplace providing extra comfort during the cooler months. The large kitchen/dining area is separated by a stone archway and boasts modern appliances, multiple storage units and ample worktop space. A two double en-suite bedrooms one with jacuzzi and the other one with shower and a guest toilet complete this floor.

Upstairs there are two more bedrooms with en-suite showers. A large uncovered balcony provides the perfect opportunity for admiring the breathtaking scenery.

The outside of the property is particularly impressive and perfect for those that enjoy al fresco relaxation and entertainment. Split over two levels, a beautifully landscaped garden provides multiple spaces where residents can fully embrace the glorious Cyprus climate. The house opens out to a spacious paved terrace with plenty of seating space and a covered barbecue/dining area.
