This outstanding contemporary house is situated in one of Phuket's most elegant private communities, set on a wooded peninsula overlooking the soaring limestone islands of Phang Nga Bay. World-leading designer Philippe Starck and visionary architect Jean-Michel Gathy, well known for his work with Aman resorts, have created a villa development that includes elegant private residences with private access to a world class spa and restaurant, and a variety of other luxury services. The Estate is also managed by Jones Lang LaSalle, the world's premier property management company.

The house is a huge 1,334 sqm with over three levels of spaciousness and privacy. The living area includes a massive dining room with exquisite views. There are four bedrooms with ensuite baths and an additional guest bathroom. All the bathrooms are fitted with very modern fixtures and tiling. The master bath comes with his and hers sinks. Also included is a maids room with a separate bathroom.

The interior comprises of very high ceilings and windows that provide a real roomy and sunlit environment within total luxury. A modern western kitchen is fully equipped and has a fabulous view overlooking the tropical gardens. Also included is a lounge, dining room, study/office, family room and a separate laundry room. The home is air-conditioned and ceiling fans throughout. And there is private parking for two vehicles.

The masterful contemporary design is world class and suited for lavish luxury living, with top quality furniture, fixtures and fittings all-round. The majestic sea-views can be accessed from virtually everywhere within the property.

The landscaped garden is laden with tall tree and dominated by the elegant private swimming pool and external Jacuzzi. Only twenty yards from the garden, you can be setting foot on a tranquil private beach and enjoying the tumbling glassy ocean and the sand between your toes.

This home is a wonderful private getaway. Call us today.
