Located in the sought-after Alporchinhas area, this completely removed 2-bedroom corner townhouse offers a blend of comfort, style and convenience, just a short walk from the beaches between Armação de Pera and Porches and Armação de Pera vibrant center. If you are looking for Algarve authenticity combined with modern comfort, this property is your perfect getaway.

With a total built area of 121m², this bright corner townhouse and holiday home is set over three levels and enjoys serene sea views from the first floor and spacious roof top terrace. The entrance level features a welcoming hallway, a guest WC under the stairs, a beautifully remodeled open-plan kitchen, and a nice open plan living and dining area air-conditioned, which flows seamlessly onto a sunny terrace terrace---perfect for outdoor dining.

The upper level comprises two spacious double bedrooms, both with en-suite bathrooms, fitted wardrobes, air conditioning and one with a nice south facing terrace with beautiful sea views.

The staircase continues and leads up to a private roof terrace with generous shade sails and ocean and panoramic views. A laundry corner is also found on this level and on the ground floor you have also an outside terrace that could be used if wanted as parking space if wished. Parking options around. This property is ideal for owners who wish to rent the property seasonally as it has an AL license and is a great source of income or could be a great combination of your new sunny holiday home and rental income. It is a rare opportunity in this location therefore when would you like to book to appreciate it by yourself?

Located within walking distance of restaurants, all amenities, various amazing beaches to enjoy amazing walks along the long Armação de Pera beach until Galé area or more small secluded beaches along the cliffs all the way towards Carvoeiro, plus Faro Airport a convenient 45-minute drive.
