Set of unique properties in Las Hurdes (Cáceres)

In the heart of Las Hurdes, one of the regions with the greatest landscape personality in Extremadura, is this group of traditional properties located in the farmstead of Aldehuela, belonging to the municipality of Pínofrankeado.

The lot is made up of six traditional buildings and a corral, offering an opportunity for those looking to develop a project in a rural environment with its own identity.

The property includes:

Renovated main house, ready for use.

Second home to rehabilitate.

Three traditional constructions with different surfaces.

Traditional woodshed.

Corral located next to the river.

The main house has been refurbished respecting the traditional architecture of Hurda and has a living room with a high rise, an independent kitchen, an open-plan bedroom, a full bathroom and a large window with open views of the valley. In addition, it has a water supply, electricity, carpentry with double glazing, electric water heater and heating by electric radiators.

The rest of the buildings offer different possibilities for rehabilitation, always subject to urban planning regulations and the administrative authorisations that are applicable.

The farmstead of Aldehuela is surrounded by a natural environment characteristic of Las Hurdes, very close to a natural pool and numerous routes to enjoy the landscape, tranquility and traditional architecture of the region.

It is a particularly interesting property for those looking to develop a project linked to the rural environment, a second home with several auxiliary buildings or an initiative related to tourist accommodation, after obtaining the necessary licenses and authorizations.

A different opportunity for those who value the traditional heritage and natural environment of one of the most unique areas of Extremadura.
