Located in Hoghiz. Excellence through experience! Turnkey rural guesthouse in Transylvania We present a modern (built in 2007), spacious, and light-filled rural property, finished to a standard suitable for use as either a private residence or a guesthouse. The upper floor features four independent accommodation units situated above the common areas, allowing the property to operate immediately as a boutique guesthouse. It is located in a quiet village along the Braşov-Sighişoara corridor—in the Saxon Transylvania region—with a natural stream flowing through the courtyard. Location – in the "heart of King Charles's Transylvania" Hoghiz is situated in a rural area of Romania, on the E60 route, between Braşov and Sighişoara. Local tourist attractions include: ~15 minutes to the medieval Rupea Fortress ~25 minutes to the Răcoş Geopark: volcanic lake and basalt columns ~25 minutes to Viscri, the famous Saxon village ~50 minutes to Braşov and the Braşov-Ghimbaş International Airport
