Estoi Family Home with Roof Terrace, Sea Glimpse & Excellent Commuting Access

Short Description

Charming two-storey family home in the historic village of Estoi, offering two double bedrooms, spacious living accommodation, a private roof terrace and attractive views across Estoi with a glimpse of the sea. An ideal Algarve holiday home, lock-up-and-leave property, permanent residence or investment opportunity, within walking distance of local amenities and an easy commute to Faro.

Property Description

Situated in the historic and increasingly popular village of Estoi, Algarve, this characterful two-storey home combines traditional village living with practical modern-day accommodation.

Originally constructed in 1998, the property was renovated in 2013, when the room layouts were also updated. It is now presented as a two-storey family home with generous living space and excellent potential as a permanent residence, holiday property or investment.

See floor plan. On the ground floor, the property features a generous sitting room with a dining area, providing a comfortable space for everyday family life. A convenient cloakroom completes this level.

The first floor comprises two double bedrooms, a family bathroom and kitchen. One of the bedrooms benefits from a wall-mounted air-conditioning heating unit.

The kitchen opens onto an enclosed terrace, with stairs leading upwards to a spacious roof terrace. This private outdoor space is an excellent feature of the property, offering plenty of room for outdoor dining, relaxing in the Algarve sunshine or enjoying the views across Estoi, with a glimpse of the sea in the distance.

Location Estoi, Algarve

One of the property's key advantages is its location. Set within walking distance of the amenities and facilities of Estoi, it offers the convenience of village living while remaining within easy commuting distance of Faro and the surrounding areas.

Estoi is a historic Algarve village with a distinctive character and a strong sense of local life. The village is home to the famous Roman ruins, local schools and the impressive historic palace, now operating as a Pousada hotel.

Day-to-day shopping and services are readily accessible locally, with a supermarket now serving the village. Estoi is also known for its large monthly outdoor market, adding to the traditional Portuguese village atmosphere.

For more extensive shopping and services, São Brás de Alportel and Faro are both within easy reach. Faro also provides access to the international airport, while the Algarve's beaches are readily accessible by car.

An Excellent Algarve Property Opportunity

This property could appeal to a variety of buyers looking for a home in the Algarve:

Permanent family home in a traditional Portuguese village

Algarve holiday home within easy reach of Faro and the coast

Lock-up-and-leave property for owners wanting a low-maintenance base in Portugal

Young couple's home, particularly for those commuting to Faro or nearby employment centres

Investment or rental property in a historic location with year-round local amenities

With its two double bedrooms, generous sitting room, roof terrace, village location, sea glimpse and convenient access to Faro, this is an appealing opportunity to own a home in one of the Algarve's historic and less-exploited locations.
